Determination of Request:

Below is a brief description of each type of Board of Zoning Appeals Petition. Please review each to determine which type of procedure you need.

Code Violations/Fines

Any person receiving a notice of violation and/or fines may appeal the violation and/or fine to the Board of Zoning Appeals or to the court of jurisdiction. A written statement from the person in violation shall be submitted to the Planning Director via Certified Mail at least three (3) days prior to the date the fine is due in order to appeal the violation.

No additional notices will be issued by the Plan Commission in the event the person(s) in violation has (have) submitted a written statement of their intention to Appeal or go to trial.

The person(s) in violation shall have thirty (30) days to file for a hearing with the BZA or court of jurisdiction. Also the person(s) in violation shall have a maximum of two (2) years to complete the hearing process with the BZA. Failure to meet these deadlines will reinstate all fines due by the person(s) in violation.

Fines due will be postponed until the BZA or court of jurisdiction have made a ruling as to the violation and/or fine.

Use Determination

The use of land or the use of a building or structure other than that prescribed by the Jeffersonville Zoning Ordinance.

The Planning Director will have the principal responsibility for administration and enforcement (or coordination of enforcement) of this Ordinance within the Plan Commission's planning jurisdiction.

This includes the determination of the most appropriate use within the Zoning Ordinance as documented on the application for the Certificate of Zoning Compliance

Special Exception

The use of land or the use of a building or structure on the land which is allowed in the Zoning District applicable to the land only through the grant of a Special Exception by the Board of Zoning Appeals.

The Board may only approve a use variance upon a determination in writing that (1) the proposal will not be injurious to the public health, safety, morals, and general welfare of the community; (2) the requirements and development standards for the requested use as prescribed by this Ordinance will be met; (3) granting the exception will not subvert the general purposes served by this Ordinance and will not permanently injure other property or uses in the same district and vicinity; and, (4) the proposed use will be consistent with the character of the district therein, the spirit and intent of this Ordinance, and the Jeffersonville Comprehensive Plan.

Special Exception Revocation Procedure

A special exception may be terminated by the Board of Zoning Appeals as follows:

1. Upon the filing of an application by an interested person or a member of the staff, and after which a public hearing is held with notice to the property owner; and,
2. At the public hearing a finding is made by the Board that one or more of the following has not been complied with:
 - The terms of this Ordinance,
 - The conditions placed on approval, and
 - The written commitments made in conjunction with the original special exception application

General Administrative Appeal

An appeal from any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by the Staff, Planning Director, administrative board, or other body except the Plan Commission.
